🕒 10:30 AM – Discover the British Museum

Attraction: The British Museum (Free entry)

Best Photo Spot: The Great Court (With its glass roof and marble floor)

Located near Bloomsbury, the British Museum is one of the world's oldest and most famous museums. Marvel at the Egyptian mummies, the Rosetta Stone, and thousands of fascinating artifacts. The Great Court is perfect for some architectural shots, especially if you catch the light filtering through the glass roof.

🕒 12:00 PM – Picnic at Regent's Park

Grab lunch to-go: Pick up a sandwich and fresh juice from Pret A Manger (~£7–£10 per person)

Location: Regent's Park (Free entry)

Take a break from the city hustle with a relaxing picnic at Regent's Park. With its vast green spaces, beautiful gardens, and peaceful atmosphere, it's an ideal place to unwind and enjoy your lunch. For the best picture, find a spot by the Queen Mary's Gardens, with vibrant flower beds surrounding you.

🕒 2:00 PM – Visit the Tower of London & Tower Bridge

Attraction: The Tower of London (Ticket: ~£25 per person)

Best Photo Spot: Tower Bridge (Especially from St. Katharine Docks)

Head to the historic Tower of London, where you'll get to see the Crown Jewels and explore centuries of British history. Afterward, take a short walk to Tower Bridge, one of London's most iconic landmarks. The best spot for a photo is from St. Katharine Docks, where you can capture the bridge with the city skyline in the background.

🕒 3:30 PM – Stroll Along the South Bank & London Eye

Activity: South Bank Walk (Free)

Best Photo Spot: London Eye (From the South Bank, near the Giant Ferris Wheel)

From Tower Bridge, head towards the South Bank of the Thames for a scenic walk along the river. This area offers fantastic views of the London Eye, Big Ben, and Westminster Abbey. Stop at the Southbank Centre for art installations or local cafés. The London Eye is especially photogenic, particularly in the late afternoon when the light softens.

🕒 5:00 PM – Visit Westminster Abbey & Houses of Parliament

Attraction: Westminster Abbey (Exterior - Free; Inside: ~£25 per person)

Best Photo Spot: Houses of Parliament and Big Ben (From St. James's Park)

Head over to Westminster Abbey and the nearby Houses of Parliament. While the interior of Westminster Abbey requires an entry fee, you can admire the stunning exterior from the outside. The best photo spot for Big Ben is from St. James's Park, where you can capture the iconic clock tower with the park's greenery in the foreground.

🕒 6:30 PM – Golden Hour at the London Eye

Attraction: The London Eye (Ticket: ~£30 per person)

Best Photo Spot: From the top of the London Eye

For an unforgettable experience, hop on the London Eye just before sunset. You'll be treated to breathtaking panoramic views of the entire city—perfect for a romantic moment. Be sure to snap a photo with the golden-hued skyline at golden hour!
